Happy Easter

Thank You for Everything!

I felt that I am one among you. I express my gratitude to my Pastor Reverend Father-Louis Jerome, the Parochial Vicar Reverend Father Stefan Chanas and all the parishioners for being with me in prayer at the loss of my father. Your love and concern gave me and my family members a lot of strength. Thank you very much for your prayers.

Father Marius Fernando

St. Charles Spring Basketball Clinics

St. Charles Sports Program will be hosting basketball clinics starting April 27th on Mondays and Thursdays for grades Kindergarten through 8th grade. To register go to stcharleschargers.com. The registration fee is $125 for eight sessions.

The Pontifical Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. It also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

LOVING IN THE "CONCRETE"

The story is told of Father Fannon. One Sunday, he got up and delivered a really great sermon about love, forgiveness, patience and controlling one's anger. Now during the week, this priest who enjoyed building things, spent long hard hours constructing a wooden frame to hold cement for a driveway. On Saturday he poured the cement, went to the shed for a tool and on his return, found a little boy from the neighborhood walking in the new cement.

Well, the priest starting yelling at the little boy and just then a parishioner was passing by and heard him ranting. "Father" the parishioner said, "What happened to the advice you gave in your homily last Sunday-love, forgiveness, patience, understanding?" The priest thought it over and answered, "You know, it's far easier to love in the abstract than in the concrete!" How true! It's so easy to talk rather than to do!

I think that we could say that Jesus was a man who loved in the concrete and not just in the abstract. Saint Paul in the Letter to the Philipians describes what Our Lord did in this regard. He emptied Himself, He lowered Himself, humbled Himself and became obedient even unto death-death on a cross! Jesus proved His great love and patience for all of us sinners by dying on the cross.

Today on Palm Sunday, we again hear the story of Our Lord's suffering and death. It is called the "The Passion." The word "Passion" comes from the Latin to suffer. It certainly is a story that we have all heard before, a story that is familiar to us-the betrayal of Jesus by Judas Iscariot, the Agony in the Garden, Peter's denials, Pilate's condemnation of Our Lord and finally the horrible crucifixion itself on Mount Calvary.

Yes, it is a story that is familiar to us but it is a story that should truly move us, inspire us, motivate us in our own lives to be more Christ like, not only in the abstract-but above all in the concrete situations, the concrete problems and difficulties that make up this journey that is known as life.

There are lessons to be learned in reading the Passion of Christ. Among those important lessons are sacrifice, patience, long-suffering, forgiveness and mercy. This Holy Week beginning today, could be a time where we could ponder some of these lessons that Our Lord Jesus taught us, not by His words, but above all by what He did by sacrificing Himself for us on the cross.

Recently, I heard a story about a little league baseball game. At this game, a young boy got up to the plate-he looked over at his coach and he saw him give the signal to sacrifice bunt. He then promptly proceeded to take three big swings and strike out. The coach ran up to him and said, "Didn't you see me give you the signal to sacrifice?" "Yes," the boy replied, "But I didn't think that you meant it!"

Well isn't that sort of what we ourselves say to God? "Yes, Lord, I heard the Gospel about your suffering and sacrifice on the cross, but I didn't really think that you meant it! I didn't think you meant it for me! But we know that really, Jesus did mean it. His sufferings and death have relevance for us today in the year 2017.

Let us apply the lessons of Jesus' Passion to our own lives so that we might always love in the "Concrete" and really mean it!

Sincerely in Christ,
Father Jerome
