Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Corinthian people were divided and could not agree. Some said they belonged to other teachers instead of Christ.

Paul reminded them that Jesus was the one who was crucified for their sins—and they should belong only to him!

Below are shapes that have been divided.

Shade in their parts according to the fractions shown beneath.

Give your whole heart to Jesus!

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

SO HELP ME GOD...

Just recently after a meeting with Cardinal Timothy Dolan at the seminary I wished him "Good Luck" for delivering the opening prayer at the new President's Inauguration on January 20th. The Cardinal thanked me and then I thought to myself, "Well, he'll do a great job; he's use to being with the powerful and famous!" It probably has been some time since a Roman Catholic Cardinal has given the invocation at a Presidential Inauguration.

Back in 1961, when the first Catholic President John F. Kennedy was sworn in, Cardinal Richard Cushing of Boston, a family friend, was chosen to give the invocation. As he was starting to say the prayer, the Cardinal noticed that the lectern was on fire! When he mentioned it to one of the officials, the man said, "Oh, that's just steam." the Cardinal replied, "Well, I guess it's being made by all the hot air from these politicians!" Maybe he wasn't far off from the mark.

In any event, at President Donald Trump's Inauguration, six religious leaders will be speaking, among them Cardinal Dolan, Protestant Ministers, and a Jewish Rabbi. The presidency is such a difficult arduous task that prayer at the beginning of any administration is a good thing. Certainly every president needs the help of Almighty God.

In the oath that the new president will take on January 20th, at the conclusion are enshrined the words "So help me God." These words were not in the original oath. Source has it that our First President George Washington added this significant phrase at his First Inauguration in 1789. Other people say that rather the tradition goes back to Abraham Lincoln at his Second Inaugural in March, 1865.

Whatever the history, these words are repeated every four years by the President, no matter what party affiliation. All Catholics certainly pray that President Trump will have a successful tenure as President of the United States. As we are one nation under God, it is well for us to remember that our nation will survive and prosper only if we adjust to changing times with the unchanging principles of integrity, honor, decency, self-control, and patriotism.

During the past several decades, we have radically departed from God's law and our Judeo-Christian heritage. For some people today, the Ten Commandments are now the "Ten Suggestions" when they are really the foundation of natural law. As Catholics we have high hopes for President Trump. Certainly one of the most important issues for Catholics is that of the Right to Life for the unborn.

During the campaign, Mr. Trump stated that he was pro-life and that he would appoint pro-life justices. Perhaps, with this new scenario, the horrible Roe VS. Wade decision could be overturned and put an end to the massacre of pre-born babies of which there have been 58 million since 1973.

We can only hope and of course, there is something that we can do as Catholics and that is to pray! Let us pray that President Trump will succeed in "Truly Making America Great Again." Great, not only from a material and financial perspective, but above all in terms of moral and spiritual values from which everything else in the long run depends!

Sincerely in Christ,
Father Jerome
