Nearly 325,000 children have difficulty affording food, that's 22% of children in the 10 counties of the Archdiocese. Do your part to make sure no hungry neighbor is turned away. Starting Sunday, January 29 through February 5, we will conduct the Feeding Our Neighbors Campaign. Some simple ways to participate and contribute to the Campaign are:

- Donate money to support emergency food programs in the Archdiocese
- Donate food which can be dropped off at the school entrance
- Volunteer your time and support at a local food pantry.

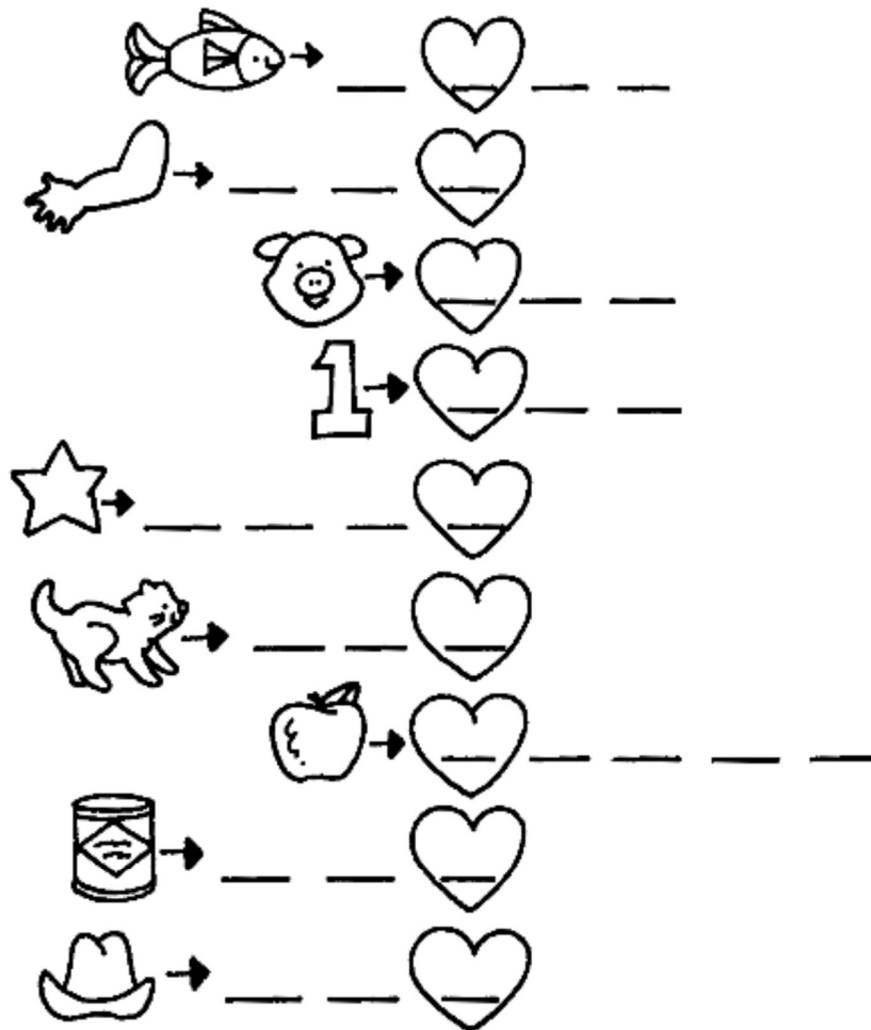

For more information, contact edna.mincey@archny.org or call 718-292-6214 ext. 17.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

OFFICER MCDONALD AND THE POWER OF FORGIVENESS...

A Rabbi told the story about a man who took some very fine material to a tailor and asked him to make a pair of pants. Well, he went back a week later and the pants were not ready. Two weeks went by and still the pants were not ready. Finally, after six weeks, the pants were ready. The man tried them on and they fit perfectly. As he was paying for the new pants he said to the tailor, "Listen; it only took God six days to make the world, and it took you six weeks to make just one pair of pants!:" "Yes," the tailor said, "But look at that pair of pants (Perfect!) And look at the world, "It's a mess!"

Well, it's not God's fault that the world is in such a mess today! Whose fault is it? Well, we know the fault lies in ourselves, all of us frail, defective human beings that we are. We could say that each of us has potential. We have the potential to be very good or at the opposite end of the spectrum-to be quite evil. The choice is ours.

As Catholics, as followers of Jesus Christ, we need to give testimony to our belief in him. What is the evidence of our faith, of our testimony to Christ? The answer of course is in our actions, in our moral goodness and holiness of life. As Catholics our lives are meant to be different.

A priest told me an interesting story one time. He was driving around his parish one afternoon and he was stopped behind a man at an intersection that had an interesting bumper sticker on the back of his car. The sticker read: "Honk-if you love Jesus!" The priest, inspired that a true Christian, a true believer was right in front of him, decided to honk his horn. When he did that however, the man in front had sort of a different reaction, he gave him the middle finger! Not such a Christ like reaction!

The point is, and there is a point-is that we need to change our lives around and become holier people. We can only do that, if we tap into God's grace given to us through prayer and the sacraments.

In this regard, I was thinking about New York City Police Officer Steven McDonald. Officer McDonald died this past week from a sudden heart attack. I think most of us know his story. Back in 1986, Officer McDonald was shot in Central Park when he tried to arrest some kids who had stolen bicycles. Steven, who was newly married, was never the same again physically. He regained the use of his voice, but he was paralyzed and needed a breathing apparatus.

About six months after he was shot, his son Conor was born. Officer McDonald said that he felt this was a message from God that he should live differently because he had been filled with terrible hate and anger. He said, "I prayed that I would be changed, that the person I was would be replaced by something new. That prayer was answered with a desire to forgive the young man who shot me."

Steven McDonald did indeed forgive that man and he spent the rest of his life speaking everywhere about God's love and mercy. Because he was a true believer in Jesus Christ, he followed the Lord's example and took his faith seriously. Through God's grace, he was able to change from hate to love.

That is a great story of how one heroic man gave testimony to his faith in Jesus Christ. Most of us won't have to make such a hard or heroic sacrifice the way he did. But let us begin to work on our conversion-so that we too might give greater evidence of our Catholic belief in our world today, the oftentimes messy world that is 2017, a world that is desperately in need of such a good example!

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Jerome
